

No personal information about you is collected when you visit this Web site unless you choose to provide that information.

Information Collected and Stored Automatically:

If you do nothing during your visit but browse through the Web site, read pages, or download information, certain information may be gathered and stored about your visit automatically. This information does not identify you personally. The following information is automatically collected and stored about your visit:

The Internet domain (for example, "xcompany.com" if you use a private Internet access account, or "yourschool.edu" if you connect from a university's domain) and IP address (an IP address is a number that is automatically assigned to your computer whenever you are surfing the Web) from which you access this Website;

The type of browser and operating system used to access this site;

The date and time you access this site;

The pages you visit; and

The Web address of the previous site visited.

This information is used to make the site more useful to visitors -- to learn about the number of visitors to this site and the types of technology site visitors use. This office does not track or record information about individuals and their visits.

If You Send Personal Information:

If you choose to provide personal information -- as in an e-mail or by filling out a form with your personal information and submitting it through this Web site - this information will be used to respond to your message and to help get you the information and the help you have requested. E-mail is treated the same way as letters sent through the Postal System. If my office is assisting you with an inquiry, the information you give will only be shared with another government agency if your inquiry relates to that agency. No information you provide is given to any private organizations. The information is not collected for commercial marketing.
